Dear Sir/Madam,

As a computer science student with an International Business background, I believe I can offer out-of-the-box thinking and practical solutions to your business. I am passionate about machine learning and I am looking for the opportunity to show my knowledge as well as advance it with more experienced and knowledgeable colleagues. I am confident that my work ethic, energy and results will speak for themselves and exceed your expectations quickly, allowing me to take on increasingly challenging tasks.

Kind Regards,

Marko Matijevic
